CAUSE

On December 21, 2005 and on January 4, 2006 the offender was confronted about illegal drug use after testing positive for cocaine and initially denying use of the drug. She eventually admitted that she had relapsed. Specifically, the offender signed an "Admission of Drug Use Form," admitting that on December 11, 2005 and December 21, 2005 she had used cocaine. The offender averred that being out of a job over a long period of time and the related financial distress contributed toward her relapse. She advised the probation officer that she has begun to attend self-help groups on her own and will be fully cooperative with placement into drug treatment program.
